

MacKenzie Dean
Lecture video

I really enjoyed the lecture video like you said I would. I like how it starts off with a grown man talking about his childhood dreams. Everyone has dreams they hope of fulfilling. When he talked to the large crowd I was inspired. As he got older he still continued to live out some of those dreams. I love that philosophy! The way that we go about our lives is in our full control. We dictated how we live.